~ The History of the Seafood Ketch ~

In 1983, after many years as the "local watering hole" and then a vacant, run down building, Ed and Eileen Branch bought the property. With Ed's vision and the family's hard work, the Seafood Ketch Restaurant opened its doors. The Ketch began with many years of experience in the restaurant business and only a blackboard menu. The Branch family, along with many friends, has worked hard to bring together good food, comfortable atmosphere and attention to details, along with one of the best views on the island, of a Maine's working harbor.

In 1992, after many years working together, Stuart and Lisa took over the helm of the "Ketch". We have and will continue the traditions that were handed down from Ed and Eileen. Some family, friends and aesthetics, may have changed, but the goal remains the same... good food, comfortable atmosphere, attention to details, and the beautiful view, inside or out, on our flagstone deck, overlooking a working harbor. We hope you enjoy your visit to the "Ketch" and if there is anything we can do to assist you, please don't hesitate in asking.

Your host, Stuart and Lisa Branch
